Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Don Engelhart began employment with Job Service of South Dakota June 1, 1967, first as a Job Service representative in Watertown and later as Job Service manager in Winner and Watertown; and,

WHEREAS, For more than 21 years, Don has been helping people find gainful employment or upgraded employment, thus enriching the lives of thousands of our citizens; and,

WHEREAS, Throughout his career as a state employee, Don exemplified the hard-working, dedicated image we all strive for; and,

WHEREAS, After his diligent service to the people of the Watertown area and the larger community that is South Dakota, Don has decided to move to Phoenix, Arizona, to be closer to his son and his family; and,

WHEREAS, Don's last day with Job Service in Watertown is Friday, September 9, 1988; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the milestones in the lives of South Dakota's dedicated and loyal public servants:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 9, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join his wife, Donna, his son and daughter-in-law, Brent and Kerry, and his granddaughter, Lexy, in wishing Don much success and best of luck in his future endeavors.

DON ENGELHART DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE